To Whom It May Concern:

The Bouncin' Bus was a huge hit at Brown County Central Library this fall, as a special event tying in with our wellness programming for kids and families. I do recommend that other libraries and organizations consider hosting a Bouncin' Bus program as a way to provide healthy fun for the families they serve, either as a stand-alone program or in conjunction with a larger event.

The bus itself is unique and remarkable, as can be seen on its informative website. We had the bus park directly in front of the library, where it served as its own colorful billboard for our event.

Owner Maria Karas has more than 15 years of experience with gymnastics and working with children, and it shows in the quality of the program she offers for kids. Professional and well organized, she was a pleasure to work with in setting up our joint event.

I was impressed with the smoothly-run system Maria has worked out for handling even large groups of kids, as well as for getting the waivers signed.

Brown County Library will definitely book the Bouncin' Bus again in the future.
